

ISE Amsterdam 2009

The no. 1 European event for the professional AV sector and electronic systems presentation of new technological solutions will take place - novelties that will soon find their application in

The Integrated System Europe, the no. 1 exhibition for the professional AV sector and integrated electronic systems, will take place at Amsterdam from February 3-5, 2009. Within the exhibition stands the world's leading producers of communication technology will be present and events for the the daily routine at our homes as well as inside companies that want to keep pace with times optimizing their communication strategies. You are welcome to visit our site at the exhibition in Amsterdam. Tagliabue Sistemi will be present with its novelties at Booth number 11G42.

