

Novelties made by Tagliabue Sistemi at ISE in Amsterdam

Tagliabue Sistemi will be present at ISE be combined and integrated with furnishings that are the complete and effective answer to the most different functional demands. Together with the Jin, Visual, Compact Communication, Rolling and Moving Monitor lines, three indefeasible novelties in the TS production will be introduced: a new model of the mobile and compact unit for training and presentation activities of Visual line, ErgoVISUAL which represents an ideal solution to make the equipments as ergonomic as possible with an electric sliding screen for a simpler operation for any kind of end user; the new moving monitor model SLIDING provided with vertical slide and complete disappearance below the working surface; last but not least the new, simple and utmost practical MONO' - a single, wheel-mounted screen support also suitable for video conferences.

in Amsterdam from February 3 to 5 with the products of its new lines for communication. The TS elements are really easy-to-use and very versatile so that any kind of environment can be equipped easily and fast, enabling that all business communication activities are carried out using the most suitable supports. Thanks to their mobility, flexibility, versatility, easy handling and elegance the different TS elements can

Integrated Systems Europe

3 - 5 February, 2009 Amsterdam RAI, NL

ISE is a joint venture partnership of:

infoComm INTERNATIONAL CEDIA CUSTOMER ELECTRONIC DESIGN & INSTALLATION ASSOCIATION